BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION

No 900L C — 11th March, 1936 — With reference to the footnote at the end of the Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Water Hyacinth Bill, 1935, published with notification No 842L C, dated the 3rd March, 1936, in Part IV of the Calcutta Gazette of the 5th March, 1936, it is hereby notified for general information that Dr Naresh Chandra Sen Gupta, M L C, has subseque[illegible] sig[illegible] the said Report subject to the [illegible], minute of dissent

Minute of dissent by Dr. Naresh Chandra Sen Gupta, M.L.C., to the Bengal Water Hyacinth Bill, 1935.

I reiterate my opinion which I expressed when the Bill was under discussion in the Council that the Bill was fragmentary and inadequate, principally because (i) it did not make any provision for Government doing its due share of work, and (ii) it aimed at doing the work piecemeal, area by area, instead of one great offensive all over the province at the same time

The scope of the Bill is limited to providing that no one shall keep water hyacinth on his land or water in a notified area and prescribing penalties for violation of the order We are assured that such provisions are necessary in order to enable the authorities to carry out programmes for eradication of water hyacinth and nothing more was needed

If this is the sole object of the Bill, it is difficult to see any justification for the provisions of clauses 9 and 10, not to carry out the work of destruction, but only to discover water hyacinth Considering that water hyacinth is not a weed which anybody would care to keep concealed or can keep concealed for long, these inquisitional processes are wholly uncalled for

It would be more to the purpose to authorise destruction parties to pursue water hyacinth to the remotest nook and corner and to remove any obstruction to their work This the Bill fails to provide except by the addition of the words "or destruction" to clause 9 which seems to me not quite an elegant way of doing it

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act of 1885, as amended by the Bengal Act IV of 1928 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) in the manner hereinafter appearing, (VIII 1885)

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act, (5 and 6 Geo V, c 61, 6 and 7 Geo V c 37, 9 and 10 Geo V c 101)

It is hereby enacted as follows —

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In spite of elaborate attempts made in 1928, in bringing this Act up to a standard of perfection, recent experience has shown that some drafting errors have still crept into the language of some of the newly added sections of the Act This Bill seeks to remove these defects in the Act

Besides, experience shows that through failure on the part of the legislature to keep the correct principles in view while framing section 50 of the Act in 1885, injustice now occurs to the landlords who have not been in possession of their estates or tenures, as the case may be, since 1793, when they are compelled to produce rebutting evidence against the presumption In the circumstances they are placed, they cannot do so, and for this failure on their part, they are hardly responsible It is therefore only fair and equitable that this defect in the Act should be removed at once, and with this object in view also, this Bill is laid before the House for favourable consideration

NOTIFICATI[illegible]

No 962L(—16th M[illegible] [illegible] —In pursuance of the provisio[illegible] rule 20 of the Bengal Legislative Co[illegible] Rules, 1920, the following Bill which w[illegible] introduced in the Bengal Legislative Cou[illegible] on the 27th February, 1936, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto

THE BENGAL PATNI TALUKS REGULATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1936

further to amend the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819, in the manner hereinafter appearing,

Reg VIII of 1819

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act,

5 and 6, Geo V, c 61; 6 and 7, Geo V, c 37, 9 and 10, Geo V, c 101

It is hereby enacted as follows —

Short title.

1 This act may be called the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1936

Amendment of section 14 of Regulation VIII of 1819

2 After clause second of section 14 of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819, the following clause be added, namely —

"Third The Civil Court may, on the application of the zamindar or of auction purchaser, direct that any sum in deposit with the Collector as purchase money for a sale held under section 9 of this Regulation, shall be invested pending the decision by the Civil Court of a suit for the reversal of such sale and thereupon the Collector shall remit the said sum

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 14A of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819, lays down that "if any objection is made by the zemindar or auction purchaser, the Collector shall refer the application together with the objection to the nearest Civil Court having jurisdiction," etc

Under sub-section sixth clause of section 14A "the Civil Court may direct that any sum in deposit with the Collector shall be invested pending the decision of the application by the Civil Court," etc

But there is no such provision for the investment of the purchase money if a suit be instituted under section 14 in the Civil Court to set aside a sale held under section 9

The object of this Bill is to provide a provision on the basis of sixth-clause of section 14A, for the investment of the purchase money held by the Collector when a civil suit is instituted under section 14 and thus to remedy a defect which now prejudices the interests of the parties concerned

Investment of money in Government securities after the suit to set aside a sale, will not be prejudicial to the interest of any of the parties On the other hand, it will be beneficial to all the parties concerned, no matter, how the suit be finally decided For example, if the sale be set aside, the purchaser will get the refund of the money with interest, if, on the other hand, the sale is confirmed, the outgoing patnidar will get the money with interest But if the investment is not made, one of the parties will suffer heavily Usually it takes several years to have the final decision in Civil Court and the purchase money, which is usually a heavy amount, remains uninvested all those years at the cost of the parties

THE BENGAL MEDICAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1936.

further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purposes hereinafter appearing ;

Ben Act IV of 1914

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General under sub section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act has been obtained to the passing of this Act ;

5 and 6 Geo V, c 61, 6 and 7, Geo V, c 37, 9 and 10, Geo V c 101

It is hereby enacted as follows —

Short title, extent and commencement

1 (a) This Act may be called the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1936

(b) It shall extend to the whole of Bengal

(c) It shall come into force immediately

Amendment of section 17

2 (i) In section 17 insert the following as the first proviso, viz —

"(i) Provided that the Governor in Council may, after consulting the Medical Council, permit the registration of—

(a) any person who has undergone a full course of training in any medical college or school and has obtained a certificate to that effect from the head of such college or school and who was practising as a medical practitioner on the date when the Act came into force, and

(b) any person who has obtained proper training in any medical institution and joined the medical profession before the 5th September, 1935, provided that he passes a special examination such as the Medical Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration

(ii) In the existing proviso to section 17, insert the word 'also' between the word 'Provided' and the words 'that the Council may' "

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

From some time past it has been felt that the provisions of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, are causing much hardship to a large number of persons who, though properly trained and possessed of degrees, diplomas, certificates, etc, from sources other than those recognised by the authorities and though they had been actually practising medicine, surgery and midwifery from before 1914, cannot get themselves registered and thus become qualified medical practitioners Practitioners with similar qualification in other provinces, viz, Bombay, the Punjab, the United Provinces, Burma, etc, have been given the privilege of registration long ago, either by amendments of the Acts of the respective provinces or by Government notification In Bengal nothing in this direction has been done up to date These practitioners of Bengal have, therefore, formed themselves into a corporate body under the name and style of the " Bengal Medical Union and have been making representations which should not be altogether ignored The redress sought for may be given by a simple amendment of the Bengal Medical Act, and it is the object of the present Bill to make this amendment

The Bengal Medical Act, 1914, in seeking to give protection to the public against quacks, omitted to make provision for the safety of those doctors who had obtained diplomas and certificates from various well organised and efficient medical institutions before the passing of the Act, who had been practising with ability and reputation for a long time and who could by no stretch of language be called quacks Yet, in the result, these able, experienced and well reputed doctors have been classed among the quacks Many of them have been thrown out of employ from hospitals, tea gardens, ships, steamers, etc, debarred from granting certificates of birth or of illness, and handicapped in many other ways Their difficulties increased when the Poison Act (Act XII of 1919) came into force and prohibited them from procuring for their patients the requisite drugs included in the schedule of poisons The transitory provision by Government for an examination of these doctors by the State Medical Faculty was in force only for two years from the passing of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914 The time was too short for the majority to avail themselves of the concession, and moreover a good many did not even get the necessary information within the period Such people are now on the brink of starvation Many of them have outgrown the age at which a change of avocation is possible, and, for obvious reasons, a fresh examination also is out of the question The proposed proviso (1) (a) of the Bill is intended to meet the cause of these people

The case of those who have obtained proper training in unrecognised medical institutions since 1914 stands on a similar footing Several unregistered doctors, who had received their training in such institutions, are now serving in tea gardens, coal mines, etc, and they have been highly spoken of by their superior medical officers, both Indian and European Some of these unrecognised institutions have since been recognised but the students, who completed their course of education therein and began to practise before such recognition, have been left in the lurch We therefore find good doctors trained at the same institutions, one set of whom—the older and the more experienced set—are unqualified for want of registration, while another set are qualified by registration Under these circumstances it is but fair and equitable that such students be given at least one chance of being qualified Hence the necessity for proviso (1) (b)

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Though Bengal Regulation VII of 1822 gives sufficient authority for the settlement of revenue, the Regulation does not specifically distinguish between agricultural lands and non-agricultural lands. Furthermore, that Regulation contemplates the adjustment of relationship between landlord and tenant at the time of settlement of the revenue with the object of equalizing the public burthens.

Under the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, though settlement of fair rent is provided for in agricultural lands, non agricultural lands are specifically excluded from the operation of the sections dealing with settlement of fair rent. It has been found with the growth of towns that lands originally leased as agricultural holdings have wholly or partly ceased to be used for agricultural purposes. In order to secure the proper revenue on such lands without interfering with contracts made between parties, which, in so far as the rent is concerned, could not legally extend beyond the term of the settlement made by the Government, it is desirable to make clear provisions for the assessment of revenue on such lands and to make such assessments legally binding on the Government's direct tenants either in a Government estate or in an estate held khas on account of recusancy of the proprietors. There have been numerous cases where, on account of failure of the tenant to agree under the law of contract to the terms offered by the Government, costly litigation has ensued with the ejectment of the tenant as the ultimate result.

It is intended that this Bill shall provide a means of securing the proper assessment on such lands without undue interference with liberty of contract.

Whereof the Governor-General of India in Council, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly

ALMERIC FITZROY

The Schedule above referred to

1 Applications to the Court for leave to appeal to His Majesty in Council shall be made within 90 days of the Decree or Order to be appealed from, subject to the provisions of sections 4, 5 and 12 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908

2 The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require

3 The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal), that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents, but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a manuscript list to be transmitted with the Record

4 Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, and the Court allows the document to be included, the Record, as printed (whether in India or in England) shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of, and incidental to, such document, indicate in the index of papers or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to

5 Where the Record is printed in India, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council 40 copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal, if any, of the Court

6 Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by, or on behalf of, the parties to the Appeal

7 Where there are two or more Appeals arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated, the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated

8 An Appellant who has obtained a certificate for the admission of an Appeal may, at any time prior to the making of an Order admitting the Appeal, withdraw the Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct

9 Where an Appellant, having obtained a certificate for the admission of an Appeal, fails to furnish the security or make the deposit required (or apply with due diligence to the Court for an Order admitting the Appeal), the Court may, on its own motion or on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, cancel the certificate for the admission of the Appeal, and may give such directions as to the cost of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other Order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires

10 An Appellant whose appeal has been admitted shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council

11 Where an Appellant, whose Appeal has been admitted, desires, prior to the despatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct

12 Where an Appellant, whose Appeal has been admitted, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps in connection with the preparation of the Record, the Court may, either on its own motion or on the application of the Respondent, call upon the Appellant to show cause why a certificate should not be issued that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to issue such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct

13 Where at any time between the admission of an Appeal and the despatch of the record to England, the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the admission of the Appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council If, in the opinion of the Court, there has been undue delay in making this application, the Court may order the Appellant, or the party interested, to take all necessary steps to perfect the Record within such time as the Court may direct, and, if he fails to comply with such Order, the Court may call upon him to show cause why a certificate should not be issued that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted, and if the Court sees fit to issue such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

14 When the Record subsequently to its despatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council, showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status If in the opinion of the Court, there has been undue delay in making this application, the Court may order the Appellant, or the party interested, to take all necessary steps to perfect the Record within such time as the Court may direct, and, if he fails to comply with such order, the Court shall report the matter to the Registrar of the Privy Council

15 These Rules shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1921, or on such other date as the Governor-General of India in Council may determine be entitled to be heard before the Judicial Committee in the matter of the said Summons and to ask for his costs and such other relief as he may be advised The Judicial Committee may, after considering the matter of the said Summons, recommend to His Majesty to rescind the grant of special leave to appeal or give such other directions therein as the justice of the case may require

12 The Record shall be printed in accordance with the Rules contained in Schedule A hereto It may be printed either abroad or in England When printed abroad the parties in England shall, upon perusal, consider whether the order of the documents is in accordance with these Rules, and if it is not, they shall agree upon the proper order The Appellant shall then rearrange copies of the Record for the use of the Judicial Committee and the other parties In the event of the parties being unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Registrar of the Privy Council who, if he thinks fit may require the parties to attend before the Judicial Committee for directions

14 Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal

15 Where part of the Record is printed abroad and part is to be printed in England, Rules 13 and 14 shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed abroad and such as are to be printed in England respectively

16 The reasons given by the Judge, or any of the Judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises shall by such Judge or Judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar and shall be included in the Record

17 The Registrar as well as the parties and their Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents but the documents omitted to be printed or copied shall be enumerated in a type-written list to be transmitted with the Record

18 Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the Record, as finally printed (whether abroad or in England), shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document, indicate, in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to

19 As soon as the Record is received in the Registry of the Privy Council, it shall be registered in the said Registry, with the date of arrival, the names of the parties, and the description whether "printed" or "written" A Record, or any part of a Record, not printed in accordance with the rules contained in Schedule A hereto shall be treated as written Appeals shall be numbered consecutively in each year in the order in which the Records are received in the said Registry

20 The parties shall be entitled to inspect the Record and to extract all necessary particulars therefrom for the purpose of entering an Appearance

22 Where the Record arrives in England either wholly written, or partly written and partly printed, the Appellant shall, within a period of four months from the date of such arrival in the case of Appeals from Courts situate in any of the countries or places named in Schedule B hereto, and within a period of two months from the same date in the case of Appeals from any other Courts, enter an Appearance and bespeak a type-written copy of the Record, or of such parts thereof as it may be necessary to have copied, and shall engage to pay the cost of preparing such copy at the following rates per folio typed (exclusive of tabular matter) —2*d* per folio of English matter, 2½*d* per folio of Indian matter, and 3½*d* per folio of foreign matter, and shall also engage to pay at such price as shall be fixed by the Registrar of the Privy Council the cost of printing at least 50 copies thereof

24 As soon as the type-written copy of the Record is ready for the printer, the Appellant shall lodge it in the Registry of the Privy Council for printing by a printer selected by the Registrar of the Privy Council, and at the same time shall lodge the amount of the estimated cost of printing the Record

25 Whenever it shall be found that the decision of a matter on appeal is likely to turn exclusively on a question of law, the parties, with the sanction of the Registrar of the Privy Council, may submit such question of law to the Judicial Committee in the form of a Special Case, and print such parts only of the Record as may be necessary for the discussion of the same Provided that nothing herein contained shall in any way prevent the Judicial Committee from ordering the full discussion of the whole case, if they shall so think fit, and that, in order to promote such arrangements and simplification of the matter in dispute, the said Registrar may call the parties before him, and having heard them, and examined the Record, may report to the Judicial Committee as to the nature of the proceedings

26 The Registrar of the Privy Council shall, as soon as the proof prints of the Record are ready, give notice to all parties who have entered an Appearance requesting them to attend at the Registry of the Privy Council at a time to be named in such notice in order to examine the said proof prints and compare the same with the certified Record, and shall, for that purpose, furnish each of the said parties with one proof print After the examination has been completed, the Appellant shall, without delay, lodge his proof print, duly corrected and (so far as necessary) approved by the Respondent, and the Registrar of the Privy Council shall thereupon cause the copies of the Record to be struck off from such proof print

27 Each party who has entered an Appearance shall be entitled to receive, for his own use, six copies of the Record

28 Subject to any special direction from the Judicial Committee to the contrary, the costs of, and incidental to, the printing of the Record shall form part of the costs of the Appeal, but the costs of, and incidental to, the printing of any document objected to by one party, in accordance with Rule 18, shall, if such document is found on the taxation of costs to be unnecessary or irrelevant, be disallowed to, or borne by, the party insisting on including the same in the Record

(b) Where the Record arrives in England written, within a period of one month from, but not before, the date of the completion of the printing thereof

Provided that nothing in this Rule contained shall preclude the Appellant from lodging his Petition of Appeal prior to the arrival of the Record, or the completion of the printing thereof, if there are special reasons why, in the opinion of the Registrar of the Privy Council, it should be desirable for him to do so

30 The Petition of Appeal shall be lodged in the form prescribed by Rule 47 hereinafter contained It shall recite succinctly and, as far as possible, in chronological order, the principal steps in the proceedings leading up to the Appeal from the commencement thereof down to the admission of the Appeal, but shall not contain argumentative matter or travel into the merits of the case

31 The Appellant shall, after lodging his Petition of Appeal, serve a copy thereof without delay on the Respondent, as soon as the latter has entered an Appearance, and shall endorse such copy with the date of the lodgment

Withdrawal of Appeal

32 Where an Appellant, who has not lodged his Petition of Appeal, desires to withdraw his Appeal, he shall give notice in writing to that effect to the Registrar of the Privy Council, and the said Registrar shall, with all convenient speed after the receipt of such notice, by letter notify the Registrar of the Court appealed from that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the said Appeal shall thereupon stand dismissed as from the date of the said letter without further Order

33 Where an Appellant, who has lodged his Petition of Appeal, desires to withdraw his Appeal, he shall present a Petition to that effect to His Majesty in Council On the hearing of any such Petition a Respondent who has entered an Appearance in the Appeal shall, subject to any agreement between him and the Appellant to the contrary, be entitled to apply to the Judicial Committee for his costs, but where the Respondent has not entered an Appearance, or, having entered an Appearance consents in writing to the prayer of the Petition, the Petition may, if the Judicial Committee think fit, be disposed of in the same way mutatis mutandis as a Consent Petition under the provisions of Rule 56 hereinafter contained

Non-prosecution of Appeal

34 Where an Appellant takes no step in prosecution of his Appeal within a period of four months from the date of the arrival of the Record in England in the case of an Appeal from a Court situate in any of the countries or places named in Schedule B hereto, or within a period of two months from the same date in the case of an Appeal from any other Court, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall, with all convenient speed, by letter notify the Registrar of the Court appealed from that the Appeal has not been prosecuted, and the Appeal shall thereupon stand dismissed for non-prosecution as from the date of the said letter without further Order, and a copy of the said letter shall be sent by the Registrar of the Privy Council to any Respondent who has entered an Appearance in the Appeal

35 Where an Appellant who has entered an Appearance—

(a) fails to bespeak a copy of a written Record, or of part of a written Record, in accordance with, and within the periods prescribed by rule 22, or

(b) having bespoken such copy within the periods prescribed by rule 22, fails thereafter to proceed with due diligence to take all such further steps as may be necessary for the purpose of completing the printing of the said record, or

(c) fails to lodge his Petition of Appeal within the periods respectively prescribed by Rule 29, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall call upon the Appellant to explain his default, and, if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the said Registrar, insufficient, the said Registrar shall, with all convenient speed, by letter notify the Registrar of the Court appealed from that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted, and the Appeal shall thereupon stand dismissed for non-prosecution as from the date of the said letter without further Order, and a copy of the said letter shall be sent by the Registrar of the Privy Council to all the parties who have entered an Appearance in the Appeal

36 Where an Appellant, who has lodged his Petition of Appeal, fails thereafter to prosecute his Appeal with due diligence the Registrar of the Privy Council shall call upon him to explain his default, and, if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the said Registrar, insufficient, the said Registrar shall issue a Summons to the Appellant calling upon him to show cause before the Judicial Committee at a time to be named in the said Summons why the Appeal should not be dismissed for non-prosecution Provided that no such Summons shall be issued by the said Registrar before the expiration of one year from the date of the arrival of the Record in England If the respondent has entered an Appearance in the Appeal, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall send him a copy of the said Summons, and the Respondent shall be entitled to be heard before the Judicial Committee in the matter of the said Summons at the time named and to ask for his costs and such other relief as he may be advised The Judicial Committee may, after considering the matter of the said Summons, recommend to His Majesty the dismissal of the Appeal for non-prosecution, or give such other directions therein as the justice of the case may require

37 An Appellant whose Appeal has been dismissed for non-prosecution may present a Petition to His Majesty in Council praying that his Appeal may be restored

Appearance by Respondent

38 The Respondent may enter an Appearance at any time between the arrival of the Record and the hearing of the appeal, but if he unduly delays entering an Appearance he shall bear, or be disallowed, the costs occasioned by such delay, unless the Judicial Committee otherwise direct

39 The Respondent shall forthwith after entering an Appearance give notice thereof to the Appellant, if the latter has entered an Appearance

40 Where there are two or more Respondents, and only one, or some of them enter an Appearance, the Appearance Form shall set out the names of the appearing Respondents

41 Two or more Respondents may, at their own risk as to costs, enter separate Appearances in the same Appeal

42 A Respondent who has not entered an Appearance shall not be entitled to receive any notices relating to the Appeal from the Registrar of the Privy Council, nor be allowed to lodge a Case in the Appeal

43 Where a Respondent fails to enter an Appearance in an Appeal, the following Rules shall, subject to any special Order of the Judicial Committee to the contrary, apply —

(a) If the non-appearing Respondent was a Respondent at the time when the Appeal was admitted, whether by the Order of the Court appealed from or by an Order of His Majesty in Council giving the Appellant special leave to appeal, and it appears from the terms of the said Order, or Order in Council, or otherwise from the Record, or from a Certificate of the Registrar of the Court appealed from, that the said non-appearing Respondent has received notice, or was otherwise aware, of the Order of the Court appealed from admitting the Appeal, or of the Order of His Majesty in Council giving the Appellant special leave to appeal, and has also received notice or was otherwise aware, of the despatch of the Record to England, the Appeal may, if all other conditions of its being set down are satisfied, be set down ex parte as against the said non-appearing Respondent at any time after the expiration of three months from the date of the lodging of the Petition of Appeal,

(b) If the non-appearing Respondent was made a Respondent by an Order of His Majesty in Council subsequently to the admission of the Appeal, and it appears from the Record, or from a Supplementary Record, or from a Certificate of the Registrar of the Court appealed from, that the said non-appearing Respondent has received notice, or was otherwise aware, of any intended application to bring him on the Record as a Respondent, the Appeal may, if all other conditions of its being set down are satisfied, be set down ex parte as against the said non-appearing Respondent at any time after the expiration of three months from the date on which he shall have been served with a copy of His Majesty's Order in Council bringing him on the Record as a Respondent

Provided that where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Registrar of the Privy Council, by Affidavit or otherwise, either that an Appellant has made every reasonable endeavour to serve a non-appearing Respondent with the notices mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) respectively and has failed to effect such service, or that it is not the intention of the non-appearing Respondent to enter an Appearance to the Appeal, the Appeal may without further Order in that behalf and at the risk of the Appellant, be proceeded with ex parte as against the said non-appearing Respondent

44 A Respondent who desires to defend an appeal in forma pauperis may present a Petition to that effect to His Majesty in Council, which Petition shall be accompanied by an Affidavit from the Petitioner stating that he is not worth £25 in the world excepting his wearing apparel and his interest in the subject-matter of the Appeal.

Petitions generally

45 All Petitions for orders or directions as to matters of practice or procedure arising after the lodging of the Petition of Appeal and not involving any change in the parties to an Appeal shall be addressed to the Judicial Committee All other Petitions shall be addressed to His Majesty in Council, but a Petition which is properly addressed to His Majesty in Council may include, as incidental to the relief thereby sought, a prayer for orders or directions as to matters of practice or procedure

46 Where an Order made by the Judicial Committee does not embody any special terms or include any special directions, it shall not be necessary to draw up such Order, unless the Committee otherwise direct, but a Note thereof shall be made by the Registrar of the Privy Council

49 Where a Petition is lodged in the matter of any pending Appeal of which the Record has been registered in the Registry of the Privy Council, the Petitioner shall serve any party who has entered an Appearance in the Appeal with a copy of such Petition, and the party so served shall thereupon be entitled to require the Petitioner to furnish him, at his own expense, with copies of any papers lodged by the Petitioner in support of his Petition

50 A Petition not relating to any Appeal of which the Record has been registered in the Registry of the Privy Council, and any other Petition containing allegations of fact which cannot be verified by reference to the registered Record or any certificate or duly authenticated statement of the Court appealed from, shall be supported by Affidavit Where the Petitioner prosecutes his Petition in person the said Affidavit shall be sworn by the Petitioner himself and shall state that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information, and belief, the allegations contained in the Petition are true Where the Petitioner is represented by an Agent, the said Affidavit shall be sworn by such Agent and shall, besides stating that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information, and belief, the allegations contained in the Petition are true, show how the deponent obtained his instructions and the information enabling him to present the Petition

52 The Registrar of the Privy Council may refuse to receive a Petition on the grounds that it discloses no reasonable cause of appeal, or is frivolous, or contains scandalous matter, but the Petitioner may appeal, by way of motion, from such refusal to the Judicial Committee

53 As soon as a Petition and all necessary documents are lodged the Petition shall thereupon be deemed to be set down

54 On each day appointed by the Judicial Committee for the hearing of Petitions the Registrar of the Privy Council shall, unless the Committee otherwise direct, put in the paper for hearing all such Petitions as have been set down Provided that, in the absence of special circumstances of urgency to be shown to the satisfaction of the said Registrar, no Petition, if opposed, shall be put in the paper for hearing before the expiration of ten clear days from the lodging thereof, unless the Opponent consents to the Petition being put in the paper on an earlier day

55 Subject to the provisions of the next following Rule, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall, as soon as the Judicial Committee have appointed a day for the hearing of a Petition, notify all parties concerned by Summons of the day so appointed

56 Where the prayer of a Petition is consented to in writing by the opposite party, or where a Petition is of a formal and non-contentious character, the Judicial Committee may, if they think fit, make their Report to His Majesty on such Petition, or make their Order thereon, as the case may be, without requiring the attendance of the parties in the Council Chamber, and the Registrar of the Privy Council shall not in any such case issue the Summons provided for by the last preceding Rule, but shall with all convenient speed after the Committee have made their Report or Order notify the parties that the Report or Order has been made and of the date and nature of such Report or Order

57 A Petitioner who desires to withdraw his Petition shall give notice in writing to that effect to the Registrar of the Privy Council Where the Petition is opposed, the Opponent shall, subject to any agreement between the parties to the contrary, be entitled to apply to the Judicial Committee for his costs, but where the Petition is unopposed, or where, in the case of an opposed Petition, the parties have come to an agreement as to the costs of the Petition, the Petition may, if the Judicial Committee think fit, be disposed of in the same way mutatis mutandis as a Consent Petition under the provisions of the last preceding Rule

58 Where a Petitioner unduly delays bringing a Petition to a hearing, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall call upon him to explain the delay, and, if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the said Registrar, insufficient, the said Registrar may, after notifying all parties interested by Summons of his intention to do so, put the Petition in the paper for hearing on the next following day appointed by the Judicial Committee for the hearing of Petitions for such directions as the Committee may think fit to give thereon

59 At the hearing of a Petition not more than one Counsel shall be admitted to be heard on a side

60 No party to an Appeal shall be entitled to be heard by the Judicial Committee unless he has previously lodged his Case in the Appeal Provided that where a Respondent, who has entered an Appearance, does not desire to lodge a Case in the Appeal, he may give the Registrar of the Privy Council notice in writing of his intention not to lodge any Case, while reserving his right to address the Judicial Committee on the question of costs

61 The Case may be printed either abroad or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with Rules I to III contained in Schedule A hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person comply with the said Case Notice, the party who has lodged his Case may, at any time after the expiration of the time limited by the said Case Notice for the lodging of the Case, lodge an Affidavit of Service (which shall set out the terms of the said Case Notice), and the Appeal shall thereupon, if all other conditions of its being set down are satisfied, be set down ex parte as against the party in default Provided that no Case Notice shall be served until after the completion of the printing, or re-arrangement under Rule 12, of the Record, and also that nothing in this Rule contained shall preclude the party in default from lodging his Case, at his own risk as regards costs and otherwise, at any time up to the date of hearing

67 Subject to the provisions of Rule 43 and of the last preceding Rule, an Appeal shall be set down ipso facto as soon as the Cases on both sides are lodged, and the parties shall thereupon exchange Cases by handing one another, either at the Offices of one of the Agents or in the Registry of the Privy Council, ten copies of their respective Cases

1 Whenever one Division Court shall differ from any other Division Court upon a point of law or usage having the force of law, the case shall be referred for decision by a Full Bench

2 If the question arise in an Appeal from an Appellate Decree, the Court referring the case shall state the point or points upon which they differ from the decision of a former Division Court and shall refer the Appeal for the final decision of a Full Bench

3 If the question arise in an Appeal from an Original Decree, the questions of law shall alone be referred, and the Full Bench shall return the case with an expression of its opinion upon the points of law for final adjudication by the Division Court which referred it, and in case of necessity in consequence of the absence of any or either of the referring Judges for the ultimate decision of another Division Court

4 If the question arise in any matter coming before a Division Court in the exercise of its Civil Revisional Jurisdiction, the point or points shall be stated as provided in rule 2, and the matter shall be referred for the final decision of a Full Bench

5 If the question arise in any case coming before a Division Court as a Court of Criminal Appeal, Reference or Revision, the Court referring the case shall state the point or points on which they differ from the decision of a former Division Court and shall refer the case to a Full Bench for such orders as to such Bench may seem fit

6 Every decision of a Full Bench shall be treated as binding on all Division Courts, and Judges sitting singly, upon the point of law or usage having the force of law determined by the Full Bench, unless it be subsequently reversed by a Bench specially constituted, consisting of such number of Judges as in each case shall have been fixed by the Chief Justice, or unless a contrary rule be laid down by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council

Form of medical certificate for candidates for direct recruitment to the Bengal Educational Service.

The attention of the Medical Board is specially directed to the following —

No person will be deemed qualified for admission to the service who shall not satisfy Government that he has no disease, constitutional affection or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the service It should be understood that the question of fitness involves the future as well as the present and that one of the main objects of medical examination is to secure continuous effective service, and in the case of candidates for permanent appointment to prevent early pension It is at the same time to be noted that the question is one of the likelihood of continuous effective service, and that the rejection of a candidate need not be advised on account of the presence of a defect which in only a small proportion of cases is found to interfere with continuous effective service Before filling up the form it should be ascertained from the candidate whether he has been previously pronounced unfit for Government service by any duly constituted medical authority in India or elsewhere
